

Sign now, save time later

By sharing your tax info with your Intuit account, you can save time and effort. The IRS requires us to get your OK before disclosing information from your tax return for this purpose, but we'd check with you first even if they didn't. With your OK, your tax info will be shared with Intuit.

Consent to disclosure of tax return information

Federal law requires this consent form be provided to you. Unless authorized by law, we cannot disclose your tax return information to Intuit Inc. for purposes other than the preparation and filing of your tax return without your consent. If you consent to the disclosure of your tax return information, Federal law may not protect your tax return information from further use or distribution.

You are not required to complete this form to engage our tax return preparation services. If we obtain your signature on this form by conditioning our tax return preparation services on your consent, your consent will not be valid. If you agree to the disclosure of your tax return information, your consent is valid for the amount of time that you specify. If you do not specify the duration of your consent, your consent is valid for one year from the date of signature.

You can choose to have us share your personal information, filing status, refund or taxes due, income information, deductions and credits, and financial institution connection information with our parent company, Intuit Inc. Intuit may use this information to enhance your Intuit account and build your profile, communicate with you, and provide personalized offers and advice for your unique financial profile. You are consenting to allow this disclosure within three years of the date of your signature.

If you believe your tax return information has been disclosed or used improperly in a manner unauthorized by law or without your permission, you may contact the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) by telephone at 1-800-366-4484, or by email at complaints@tigta.treas.gov.

By signing and clicking "Continue" below, I authorize TurboTax to disclose my personal information, filing status, refund or taxes due, income information, deductions and credits, and financial institution connection information from this 2017 tax return and any amendments to Intuit Inc.

Now we just need you to sign and date this form below. Please enter your name as it will appear on your tax return.
